

TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL TO HOST “BOOKS AND BREAKFAST” AT HAT CREEK BURGER COMPANY ON SEPTEMBER 22

WHAT: Texas Book Festival is excited to host their first “Books and Breakfast” event at Hat Creek Burger Company in Westlake with Austin-based children’s author Cate Berry on Saturday, September 22. Berry will present her book Penguin and Tiny Shrimp Don’t Do Bedtime!, while guests can enjoy breakfast from Hat Creek, who will donate 25% of all purchases during the event to Texas Book Festival.

Young readers will have two opportunities to hear Berry read her delightful new picture book, with storytime starting at 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. Penguin and Tiny Shrimp Don’t Do Bedtime! features colorful and witty characters adventuring through fireworks and shark-infested waters, all the while determined not to go to bed.

Guests can also donate books to Reading Rock Stars Austin with the Texas Book Festival Book Tree. The Texas Book Festival’s Reading Rock Stars presentations bring books to life for children in low-income schools by inviting authors and illustrators into classrooms with entertaining presentations that inspire students to read, write, and create.

ABOUT TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL

With a vision to inspire Texans of all ages to love reading, the Texas Book Festival connects authors and readers through experiences that celebrate the culture of literacy, ideas, and imagination. Founded in 1995 by former First Lady Laura Bush, Mary Margaret Farabee, and a group of volunteers, the nonprofit Texas Book Festival promotes the joys of reading and writing through its annual Festival Weekend, the one-day Texas Teen Book Festival, the Reading Rock Stars program, grants to Texas libraries, the Fresh Ink Fiction Contest and year-round literary programming. The Festival is held on the grounds of the Texas Capitol each fall and features more than 250 renowned authors, panels, book signings, cooking demonstrations, and children's activities. The 2018 Texas Book Festival Weekend will take place October 27 – 28. Thanks to generous donors, sponsors, and 1,000 volunteers, the Festival remains free and open to the public.
