

The Texas Book Festival is a nonprofit organization that connects authors and readers through year-round, statewide programs that celebrate the culture of literacy, ideas, and imagination. TBF brings authors to Title I elementary schools, awards grants to public libraries, and engages tens of thousands of Texans at the annual Festival. Above all, TBF inspires all Texans to love reading.

ANNUAL TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL WEEKEND

The 2022 Texas Book Festival Weekend will be held November 5 through November 6 in Downtown Austin. The Texas Book Festival is honored to be one of the largest and most prestigious literary events in the nation, typically welcoming 50,000 people from around the state, spread throughout the grounds of the State Capitol and along Austin's iconic Congress Avenue. Highlights this year include:

- More than 250 authors are participating in sessions, including programming for adults, young adults, middle-grade readers, and children.
- The First Edition Literary Gala will be held on Friday, November 4 at the Fairmont Austin. The annual Gala will bring together some of the world's leading literary minds for an evening filled with good books and wonderful conversation.

HISTORY

Founded in 1995 by Laura W. Bush, a former librarian and then First Lady of Texas, along with Mary Margaret Farabee and a dedicated group of volunteers, the TBF set out to honor Texas authors, promote the joys of reading, and benefit the state's public libraries. The first Festival took place in November 1996 and has grown into one of the nation's premier literary events.
